Valdobbiadene Prosecco Superiore DOCG

#1 Top 100 of 2019, 94 points, Wine Enthusiast

"Aromas of white spring flower, Bartlett pear and citrus waft out of the glass. The racy, refreshing palate is full of energy, offering crisp yellow-apple, lemon drop and orange zest flavors balanced by vibrant acidity. A perlage of small, refined and continuous bubbles provides the silky backdrop."

Vineyards: Valdobbiadene is located in the heart of the Prosecco DOCG production zone at the foot of the Prealps, a mountain range in the south-eastern part of the Alps. This region in the north-eastern part of Italy is most famous for the prized Prosecco vine and wine production because it has the greater concentration of high hillside vineyards. Vines are grown only on the sunniest parts of the hills, at altitudes varying between 50 and 500 meters above sea level.

Winemaking: Pressing, de-stemming, cooling of must and fermentation in stainless steel tanks at controlled temperature. Second fermentation in "cuvee close". Charmat Method. The word 'Rustico' dates back to an old winemaking tradition where Prosecco was made using a short second fermentation in the bottle and leaving the sediments in the wine. Although no longer the technique, the name 'Rustico' has remained as a reflection of quality and tradition.

Tasting Notes: Elegant notes of pear, citrus and honeysuckle. The texture is creamy, soft and delicate with persistent effervescence.
